Startling, but true. Jimmie has not bought any bats. Also he is acquainted with a man who is acquainted with the man who makes a certain brand of bats. I must acknowledge that I got this information from a contemporary, I would mention names but advertising a brand of bats helongs strictly to the advertising department.

I must admit that it is peculiar that buts are bought for a baseball team, seeing as how balls are always batted with a bat.

Kid is a wonder. You can't get away from it. His idea now is to get back into the squared circle and hynotize himself. Then, according to the McCoy theory, he will not feel the blows rained upon him.

He will simply stand in the ring, let the other fellow wear himself out using the McCoy brand of punching-bag, and after the would-be champion is ex-hausted, lo, and behold, it will put wer a light tap and walk home with the change.
